2. What is happening with Ciro House and what is the financial impact on our budget? The Vocations Office is paying sufficient rent to the parish to offset all costs associated with Ciro House, including the interest and principal payments for the outstanding loan which was paid down to $68K using net rental income earned in the 2006/07 financial year.

3. How does the automatic debit program work for making regular contributions? 140 parish families have signed automatic debit authorizations to have their regular weekly contributions automatically withdrawn from their bank account each month. This program ensures that the parish receives a predictable revenue stream while providing a convenient way for parishioners to donate. Simply complete and return a sign up form if you wish to take advantage of this great program. These forms are available at the main entrance of the church.
